

Embassy of India Djibouti

PRESS RELEASE

Indian Council of Cultural Relations (ICCR), a Government of India institution offers a long-term scholarships for 1068 ICCR Scholarships slots at 131 Indian Universities/Institutes to African countries under India-Africa Maitri Scholarship Scheme (IAMSS) for the Academic Year 2025-26. The students from Djibouti have been allotted 15 slots for ICCR Scholarships. The Government of India granted gratis visas to these ICCR scholars and provides economy class air-fares as admissible.

2. Under IAMS Scheme 2025-26, 15 Djiboutian students selected for ICCR scholarships got admission at various universities including Andhra University (04), Osmania University (02), University of Kerala (02), Savitribai Phule Pune University (02), Gujarat Technological University (02), Mahatma Gandhi University, Kottayam (01), Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda (01), and Punjabi University, Patiala (01).

3. Embassy of India, Djibouti was opened in 2019 and since then 90 scholarships have so far been granted to Djiboutian students.

Djibouti

August 05, 2025