Celebration of 73 Independence Day of India in Djibouti

The Embassy of India celebrated the first Independence Day Flag Hoisting Ceremony in Djibouti. It was very encouraging to see more than 150 Indians, Persons of Indian Origin and friends of India to attend the event. Mr Yacin Houssein Doualeh, Director of Bilateral Relations, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Mr. Nalin Kothari, the former Honorary Consul of India in Djibouti and other prominent persons who attended the event.

3. The Ambassador hoisted the National Flag in the new Chancery building which is going to become operational soon. The Ambassador read out the President’s Address to the Nation. He addressed the Indian community and informed that the Embassy has been opened in Djibouti to look after the welfare and promote cultural linkages with the Indian community. He said the relations with Djibouti were cordial and friendly and the Indian community could act as a bridge between the two. He said now that the Embassy of India has been opened, we will work together with Government of Djibouti to further strengthen and promote people to people and Government to Government relations.

4. The local newspaper ‘The Nation” and the Radio & Television Djibouti (RTD) covered the event well and carried news report in newspaper and TV. The photographs of the event have been uploaded on the website and the social media platforms of the Mission.
